English

We're working on The Huge Bag of Worries again . This time we are writing a list of worries. While you're writing, we would like you to really think about how to form your letters and make your work look beautiful.

Outdoor activity

We think it would be great fun to make an assault course for a teddy or another toy. Send us some photographs - we would love to see them.

What You'll Need:

- A range of loose parts such as ropes, tyres, planks, guttering, camouflage nets etc.
- Connectors such as string, masking tape, Velcro straps or ball bungees.
- A camera!

Activity

The challenge is for small teams to create an assault course suitable for a teddy bear.

Over the course teddy must encounter obstacles to:

1. climb over
2. go through
3. crawl under
4. slide down
5. scare him
6. and one other exciting element!

Ready...Teddy...Go!

Lulu and Humphrey

Lulu went strawberry picking at the weekend. What a lot of strawberries Lulu!

Humphrey is checking to see if the tomatoes are ready to eat yet.

Have a lovely day.
