Our final newsletter of the school year! Here are a selection of photos highlighting some of the special events of the last week:

Here are the winners of the Peace Poster competition which Year 6 entered through the Lions International charity. Well done, girls, your designs look amazing!

On Wednesday Nursery had a fabulous theme day, transforming their play areas into a festival. The children's costumes were amazing, and everyone had a fantastic day - performing on the main stage, playing games, enjoying craft activities and face painting.

Last Friday our Year 6 Leavers' celebration took place. In addition to our traditional pizza and movie night, this year we organised games and activities including kite flying followed by overnight camping on the school field. Many thanks to the PTFA for funding this event and to all the staff who made it possible.

On Tuesday, children and staff gathered to wish Kevin Steward, our brass teacher, a very happy retirement. Even though we haven't been able to rehearse together for such a long time, we managed to create a special performance to thank Mr Steward to everything he has done for the school for over twenty years.

The term ended with our final assembly, saying thank you, goodbye and good luck to Miss Gascoigne and Miss Hicks. We wished our Year 6 leavers every success in the future and enjoyed watching their fantastic production based on Aladdin. Now as the summer holidays begin, we hope all our families will have a wonderful break. See you in September!
